September 2007

Greetings former ACD member! It's time to renew your ACD membership. Be sure your membership is up-to-date to receive your free quarterly subscription to Shelterforce magazine. Beyond the magazine subscription and the network of colleagues, benefits of ACD membership include:

- ❖ Discounts on ACD's national conference and other event fees;
- ❖ Information about upcoming ACD gatherings;
- ❖ Updates on community design victories, resources for community designers, and best practices in the field;
- ❖ Ability to serve on the ACD board of directors and working committees, and voting privileges at annual business meetings.

About Shelterforce Magazine

- Shelterforce is the nation's oldest continually-published housing and community development magazine. Published by the National Housing Institute (NHI), for three decades, it has been a primary forum for organizers, activists and advocates in the affordable housing and neighborhood revitalization movements.
- NHI searches for what does and does not work in community building. NHI tries to understand why some groups have been successful in their activities, or what has caused others to fail. It searches for innovative strategies, unique partnerships, and effective ways to organize low-income communities.
- In 30 years of existence, Shelterforce is the leading publication for community building professionals. It is dedicated to providing the tools activists need to organize their communities, rebuild their neighborhoods, and create decent housing and living wage jobs for the families who live there.

Thank you for your support! ACD relies on its members' dues to cover crucial costs such as its annual conference, maintenance of our website, and development of member resources.
